2009 WORLD ELITE MEN'S CHAMPIONSHIPS

ASSISTANT COACH BOXING

Boxing Australia Inc. (BAI) invites applications for appointment as Assistant Coach of the Australian Team to the International Boxing Association (AIBA) 2009 World Elite Men's Championships to be held in Milan, Italy, 1-12 September, 2009.

The appointment of the Assistant Coach of the Australian Team to the 2009 World Elite Men's Championships is a major decision for BAI and will be given serious consideration by BAI because the holder of this position can have a significant influence on the performances of Australian boxers at the Championships in the ring and out of the ring in the pre and post Championships periods.

Accordingly, the person undertaking the role of Assistant Coach will be required to:

- support the Head Coach and assist with the implementation of a competition and training program endorsed by BAI;
- assist with the monitoring of athlete performance;
- assist in overseeing the day to day training of Team boxers;
- assist the Head Coach in providing advice to boxers in the corner during all competitions.
- travel with the Team to Italy prior to the World Championships and be directly responsible to the Head Coach under the overall control of the Team Manager;
- when travelling with the Team follow all coaching programs developed by the Head Coach;
- set an example to all Team boxers in behaviour, dress and commitment;
- monitor the performance of the Team as directed by the Head Coach;
- be available to attend the training camp in Italy prior to the World Championships;
- be available to attend a training camp at the AIS recommended by the National Coach;
- be registered with a Member Association of BAI; and
- be nominated by a BAI Member Association.

The person undertaking the role of Assistant Coach will be required to possess the following attributes:

- demonstrated interpersonal and communication skills with boxers;
- previous experience as a coach and a demonstrated capacity to provide leadership and direction to boxers;
- demonstrated well developed organisational skills;
- ability to supervise individual training programs developed by the Head Coach for the Team boxers; and
- possess a current boxing coach accreditation by the Australian Sports Commission – Coaching and Officiating Unit or an internationally recognised coaching accreditation.
